

WALL LIGHT

Haworth

Vintage Opal Glass Globe Wall Light, Antique White

Haworth is a wall light with old-fashioned charm, made for a period home: an opal glass sphere framed by raised resin circles. On a landing or in a study, it gives a soft, muted light.

WHERE TO PUT IT

At 11 cm deep, it stays close to the wall, whether above a chest of drawers or beside a bookcase.

IN DETAIL

The light

The G4 bulb (5 W maximum) is included and sits behind the glass: you see the sphere light up, never the bulb itself. Haworth suits a room of 3 to 8 m².

Materials

The circles are made of textured resin in an antique white tone; the sphere is opal glass.

Fitting

Haworth mounts on the wall and connects to the mains (85 to 260 V); an electrician can do this for you if you prefer.

Indicative measurements: stone, blown glass and wood are natural materials, so no two lights are quite the same.
