Helmsley

Small Travertine Flush Ceiling Light with Walnut

Helmsley is a small, round 12 cm ceiling light in travertine trimmed with walnut. On the ceiling of a study or a kitchen, it brings a touch of stone and wood.

SIZES AND FINISHES

One size, two finishes: Cream, which shows the natural tone of the travertine, or Black, more graphic against a white ceiling.

IN DETAIL

The light

A bulb is included, and the socket takes LED bulbs.

Materials

The body is solid travertine, set off with touches of walnut.

Fitting

It weighs about 1.1 kg, so your existing light point can carry it without reinforcing the ceiling; an electrician can fit it if you prefer. Designed for indoors.

Indicative measurements: stone, blown glass and wood are natural materials, so no two lights are quite the same.
