Holt

Small Cordless Table Lamp in Gloss Metal

Holt is a small 21 cm rechargeable lamp with a rounded shade in gloss metal. Its 1,500 mAh battery is enough: once charged, it runs without a cable.

SIZES AND FINISHES

One size, seven gloss colours. White and grey stay discreet and black goes with anything; red, blue, green and burgundy turn the lamp into a spot of colour in its own right.

IN DETAIL

The light

A 6 W LED is built in and included. Everything is controlled from the crown of the shade: a fingertip lights it, puts it out, or brings the brightness gently up and down. Its light can be set to three colour temperatures. One of them, a 3000 K warm white, is gentle for the evening.

Materials

The iron and aluminium body has a gloss finish, offered in seven colours.

Fitting

Nothing to install: charge it over USB-C (cable included), then set it down wherever you like indoors.

Indicative measurements: stone, blown glass and wood are natural materials, so no two lights are quite the same.
