Oundle

Banker's Desk Lamp with Touch Dimmer & USB

On a bureau, a piano or a hall console, Oundle takes the familiar shape of a banker's lamp. Its warm white LED dims with a touch, and a USB port lets you charge a phone right beside it.

FINISHES

Green, the traditional banker's lamp colour, or black, at the same price.

IN DETAIL

The light

The LED is part of the lamp and shines a warm white, at 3,000 K. A touch dimmer adjusts the brightness to suit reading, writing or winding down.

Materials

It combines aluminium with optical acrylic. Its foot is rectangular and weighted.

Fitting

Simply stand it on the furniture: no electrical work required. The lamp has its own USB socket, delivering 1.5 A: enough to charge a phone while you work.

Indicative measurements: stone, blown glass and wood are natural materials, so no two lights are quite the same.
